

Manual to the Astrodamus Reports

Thank you for ordering one of our Astrodamus Reports. In this manual we will disclose how to interpret this Report so that you can grasp the specific Astrodamus language.

Do know that the Report is generated with a software program that was originally programmed in Hungarian. The texts were then translated from Hungarian to English, but often in quite a bad way... We hope you don't mind this and find reliability and the technique that is used more important.

Before Astrodamus™ was launched in 2000, the reports of this software were tested on nearly 2,000 horoscopes (537 people have since deceased, 1,270 were still living in 2003) giving the following accuracy indexes:

Features tested	Accuracy
Annual analysis (maximum deviation +/- 2 weeks)	95%
Daily analysis (maximum deviation +/- 1 day)	85%
Personality description	80%
Forecasting lucky/unlucky periods	75%
Financial situation in different life stages	70%
Delineation of overall health and propensity to illness	70%
Number of marriages/partner relationships	67% - 90%
Sign of the partner	85%
Personality traits of the partner	80%
Quality of relationship(s) and turbulent factors if present	85%
Outstanding life events	85%

Indeed, from our own experience we know how accurate Astrodamus™ and the reports are. In fact, frightening accurate!

According to your choice, your Report may include one or more of following items:

- Your natal chart wheel with Fixed Stars and a detailed aspect grid
- A Basic Analysis of your natal chart
- the Annual and/or Daily Analysis for a certain period

CHART WHEEL

Your Chart wheel contains a detailed aspect grid on which you can find the following symbols:

- a small black trine in the left upper corner of the aspect and
- a second box around the aspect

Example:

	this small black triangle points to applying aspects (the aspect is about to become exact, the orb gets smaller and smaller). If there is no triangle in the corner, the aspect is separating.
	A double boxed aspect denotes an incoming aspect (the faster planet runs toward the slower planet). If there is only one box around the aspect, the aspect is outgoing (the faster planet runs away from the slower planet).

On the outer ring of the chart wheel you can read the Fixed Stars that are conjunct any point or planet.

BASIC ANALYSIS

The Basic Analysis of your natal chart describes four different topics:

- ❖ basic analysis (basic analysis of the natal chart)
- ❖ propensity to illness or accidents
- ❖ data pertaining to spouse/partner
- ❖ financial situation

The first topic is the basic analysis which, in a nutshell, delineates the Ascendant, blended with your Sun sign.

For example:

Basic analysis

Reserved personality. Reacts slowly to external stimuli, for he/she thinks through everything. Thoroughly analytical, over-scrupulous, and highly critical, for which he/she is deemed a hair-splitter, stickler. However, he/she is a strict critic of him/herself as well. Only accepts what he/she thoroughly understands. "Just because" does not constitute an acceptable answer. Pedant. "The ashtray doesn't belong there, but it's best not to be used for ashes, anyway." Health conscious, tends to be a hypochondriac. Hesitant in many cases, but can be very decisive at times. Argumentative, cannot enjoy life... He looks at everything through a mental filter, cannot ease up.

Due to the position of the Sun, (however) rather vain, more philosophizing, higher standards.

a) Play an important role in his/her life:
love, child

b) Connections:
 Parent negatively related to abroad or legal matter.
 Child, love positively related to finances.
 Child, love negatively related to work or illness.
 Child, love positively related to profession.
 Spouse or business partner positively related to real-estate.
 Spouse or business partner positively related to accidents, surgery, death, or separation/divorce.

Then follows a delineation of the following subtopics, from a) to f); (it's possible that not all subtopics are listed, depending on your natal chart):

- a) Play an important role in his/her life: this section describes life events that play an enormously important role in your life, for good or for bad.

Example 1: when you read the words 'work, illness' in this section, this may mean that work is the first priority in your life, you want good co-workers and may even be a workaholic. Health is important to you too. You may possibly work in the healing or medical fields. Work and health may be intertwined.

Example 2: when the themes of 'death/divorce, finances' are listed, it may indicate fear of death, leave-taking or separation. Death and separation are a theme in your life. Financial issues may be present in your life. Because death and finances are intertwined legacies belong to the possibilities in your life.

- b) Dominant over the following persons: when you find this section in your report, it means that Astrodamus has found that some people have a huge impact on your life, in one way or the other.

Example: when the words 'friends, father-in-law or mother-in-law' are listed, this means that these persons will influence your life in quite a big way.

- c) Connections: this word lists all your 'connections' or 'relationships' and people you may meet during your life. Harmonious relationships are printed in green, more unfavorable relationships are printed in red. Read the sentences from left to right and from right to left and combine the meanings. We refer to the Addendum 'Life domains' in which you can find the words that are used and the meaning they have. Please, read this Addendum carefully before jumping to any conclusion!

Note: the words 'negatively related' mean 'dislike'. The words 'positively related' mean 'like'.

Example 1: the red sentence 'Parent negatively related to abroad or legal matter' may mean the following:

- * my parents dislike my involvement in foreign transactions or foreign affairs
- * I dislike my parents' involvement in foreign affairs or transactions
- * I dislike my parent's legal affairs and matters
- * my parents dislike my involvement in legal matters
- * etc...

Example 2: what does it mean when you read the following red sentence: 'Child, love negatively related with work or illness'. These are some possibilities:

- * I dislike my child's work for whatever reason
- * my child dislikes my work, for example because I don't have enough time to spend with her/him
- * I dislike my child's illness which worries me.
- * I dislike the work of my child's partner (the word 'love' as described in the Addendum 'Life domain' is related to anyone we do like)

- d) Gambling not advised. If your natal chart does not promise much luck in gambling or winning, this sentence will be printed.
- e) No possibility of sexual perversion: be careful when delineating this sentence because only 238 cases were analyzed with Astrodamus. This is not statistically significant at all.
- f) No possibility of correction facility or mental institute: here too, be careful when delineating this sentence; only 770 cases were analysed with Astrodamus. Take it with grains of salt.

The second topic under the basic analysis is the propensity to illness or accidents. Words and sentences in red point to health problems. The propensity to illness or accidents refers to the entire life span. Even if you have no complaints today, this does not mean you will not develop problems later in your life. The sentence also signals minor accidents.

The third topic lists data pertaining to spouse/partner.

Then follows a delineation of the following subtopics, from a) to e); (it's possible that not all subtopics are listed, depending on your natal chart):

- a) Possibility of one marriage (cohabitation) only (xx %): Astrodamus will tell you if there may be more than one marriage or very deep friendship with a partner. Your partner is not only your wife or husband but any intimate relationship you may have as well.

So, marriage is NOT the criterion for Astrodamus!

Also, it's possible that Astrodamus points to an 'early, hasty relationship' in the Report, as well as 'late relationship possible.' This may seem contradicting but it is not! In case you read 'contradicting' information in the Report, in practice Astrodamus will indicate that you will have more than one (profound) relationship or marriage in your life and that every relationship will have some specific characteristics as listed, one will be a hasty one and the other relationship will come late in life. Do remember that the Report describes your whole life!

When Astrodamus lets you know that 'the number of marriages, (cohabitation) cannot be determined' and lists some events in the Report that point to a marriage, then a marriage still may occur. You must read the texts as a whole.

- b) The partner(s) probable sun or asc. Sign(s): here you can read the possible ascending or Sun sign of your partner (the partner is the one you are attracted to and not only your husband/wife).
- c) Quality of relationship(s): A red text points to disharmonious or unfavourable influences. Here too, Astrodamus describes the quality of all your relationships during your whole life.

- d) The following events will cause friction in relationship(s): Here you will read all the topics and themes that may cause friction in all your intimate relationships.
- e) The time when spouses first met (considering only marriages based on love) between: Here Astrodamus prints the date when it's likely that you will meet a partner.

The fourth topic describes your financial situation. Astrodamus lists different age groups with the accompanying general financial situation. Overlapping periods do show that your financial situation will not change overnight.

ANNUAL AND/OR DAILY ANALYSIS

The Annual Analysis lists events that will happen in a certain time span (+/- 2 weeks). It's intertwined with the Daily Analysis that lists events for a certain day (+/- 1 day).

If the events appear in the Daily Analysis but you can't find the same events in the Annual Analysis, then it's unlikely that the event will happen!

Example: when in the Daily Analysis you read that you may lose your job, but you cannot find this event in the Annual Analysis, then it's unlikely that you will lose your job!

If you are planning to marriage and in the Annual Analysis appears 'important life event' or 'change related to love', then it's very likely that you will marry in the given time span.

The 'Annual Analysis' always overpowers the 'Daily Analysis'!

The Annual Analysis is based on the primary directions. The quality of the event is indicated by the word favorable in green or the word unfavorable in red.

When an event appears in the Annual Analysis in green, and the same event appears in the Daily Analysis in red, this means that the event will still be positive (in the end).

When the Annual Analysis lists an event in red and the same event appears in the Daily Analysis in green then it's unlikely that the event will have a positive ending.

Example:

Block 1

(public) assault affecting life style; end of job; illness of parents vocation/success; immediate family : >> important change – with positive final result – connected with love unfavorable real-estate transaction or move; losses; problem with family immediate family, accident/damage : >> important change – with positive final result – connected with luck

Block 2

(public) assault affecting life style; end of job; illness of parents

vocation/success; immediate family : >> important change – with positive final result – connected with love unfavourable real-estate transaction or move; losses; problem with family

immediate family, accident/damage : >> important change – with positive final result – connected with luck

All blocks must be read in all directions: from left to right and from right to left, top-down and the reverse. Read and blend the words in all directions.

The content of the words (keywords) can be read from the Addendum ‘Life domains.’

In the example above the blocks describe the death of Mozart’s father on May 28, 1787. In the example we find converse primary directed Sun square Mozart’s natal Sun- and his primary directed Sun inconjunct his natal MC.

Another example from our own practice:

favorable change related to self love, child, work, illness : >> favorable change - with obstacles - connected with obligation favorable change with marriage or partnership love, sex/rarely childbirth : >> favorable change - with obstacles - connected with work

events determining long term tendencies

love, child, work illness : >> important change - with obstacles

What happened? This client met his wife then (however, she was still married to someone else at that moment).

Life events can be listed in two different ways (as in Mozart’s case above):

1. the event is listed only once in a certain time span
2. the event is listed more than once (eventually under different periods), which means that the event will happen in different stages or will happen in the overlapping time span:

Example: imagine there are two different blocks describing the same event and the first block starts in April and ends in December, the next block starts in July and ends in February the following year. This means that the event will likely happen between April and June (the overlapping period indicated by both blocks), and that the event will certainly start manifesting after June.

From the moment you can read a single block, you can start combining all the blocks in the Annual Analysis.

If a certain event is listed different times, both in a favorable way as well as in an unfavorable way, than the disharmonious effects will be minor, BUT ONLY in the overlapping time span!! So, it is very important that you take a look at the time span in which events are indicated.

IMPORTANT : predictions will only be correct if your time of birth is accurate to the minute! (That's the only disadvantage of the primary directions: if your time of birth is 4 minutes off, the prediction will be one year off or will even not manifest!!)

The Daily Analysis should be read the same way as the Annual Analysis.

IMPORTANT: Remember, events will only happen when they also appear in the Annual Analysis!

Example:

favorable change with job or illness distant relatives, illness : >> favorable change - with positive final results - connected with accident/damage resolution of problems accident/damage, isolation :>> favorable change - with positive final result - connected with immediate family

What happened? This client feared to lose his job and signed another contract.

Under the Daily Analysis you can find your biorhythm too. However, take this with some grains of salt. Our experience has proven that this is not always reliable.

Don't neglect the headings 'effects' and 'daily analysis' in the Daily Analysis Report.

Under 'effects' you will find a list of topics that may bring hindrance (in red) or that are favorable (in green). Also some strong effects to be expected with... are listed.

Do keep an eye on these 'effects' when reading your daily trends, because they really are important!

Under daily analysis you will see how good your day is regarding financial matters and communicative skills (negotiations and communication). As always, a green text shows favorable influences, red texts points to challenges.

IMPORTANT NOTE ON BLANK PAGES

It happens that you may find blank pages ('years missing' for example) in your annual or daily analysis. This is not an error nor is it a mistake or a programming bug!

The annual analysis lists the time frames (start and ending periods) during which primary directions are active.

When a primary direction starts in a certain year and spans most of the year, it will be listed under that year. In case no primary direction starts in a certain year or in case it does not span most of the year, it will not be listed under the starting year but under the header of the next year. Primary directions are unlike transits that happen more frequently (because of the short-range influences). Primary directions describe long-range influences which are less frequent, but last longer.

ADDENDUM: 'LIFE DOMAINS'

According to specific astrological configurations, Astrodamus uses keywords to describe the event in the Annual and Daily analysis. The keywords have a specific meaning that you can find below.

Accident/damage	Don't think that this keyword always indicates severe accidents and cases, though it can. Most often it may indicate near-accidents too. Just use caution in this period and be (more) careful. Surgeries can be found under this keyword too, as well as work related injuries. Health workers, nurses, paramedics etc. may see this keyword too when they take care of (severe) victims. In a small percentage of cases this keyword can be found in the Annual or Daily Analysis, indicating news of death(s), especially when you don't know the deceased quite well or have no emotional bond with him or her (also see the keyword death, separation).. If the scale is 3 or below, then it's just a minor accident or case. A scale above 3, may indicate more severe accidents or illness causing different medical follow-ups. Under 'damage' Astrodamus lists events and cases in which there are financial expenses and in which something has to be restored to its original state. Examples of damage are fines, fire, broken pipes and their consequences, theft, car damage... Maintenance costs also belong to this keyword (painting the bedroom for example).
Addiction	Any case of addiction or abuse (and addictive behaviour) is indicated by this keyword that almost only appears in the Daily Analysis periodically for a long time.
Administration	The same type of events as listed under Authority is indicated by this keyword (but most often it does not indicate your boss). Administration is about your official business, filing claims, daily administrative work etc.
Art	This keyword indicates any kind of art (not necessarily professional art). It happens that this kind of events also appears under 'public appearance' or 'vocation/succes'.
Authority	This keyword includes any branch of the government such as tax authorities, customs, the judicial system, police or fire departments and, occasionally, any supervisor or superior person or your boss. It may indicate people wearing a uniform.
Change related to illness	If the change appears as favorable it indicates the end of some

	illness. If the change is unfavorable it indicates the beginning of illness.
Child	This keyword refers to any child; it may be your own child, or a grandchild, regardless of its age! It may indicate the child of someone else too. The birth of a child or grandchild or... is indicated by this keyword too. If the event appears with the word unfavorable, and you are the mother or you are pregnant, there may be some (minor) complications during your pregnancy or childhood.
Child gynecology problem	Any problem related to the reproductive organs of a child under the age of 14 is indicated. Bed-wetting also appears under this keyword as well as possible sexual abuse.
Childhood joys	This keyword is about play, sport, luck, love interest, puppy love and everything that may make a child (or an adult) happy.
Communication	This keyword denotes information you receive from any source, through correspondence, negotiations or news media.
Contract	Not necessarily written contracts are indicated by this keyword, it's much broader. Basically, all agreements should be seen as 'contracts'. Unfavorable indications point to unfavorable agreements so it's best not to lend money, don't sign any contract and don't negotiate with the police after they stopped you for violating the law...
Damages	See Accident/damage
Death/separation/divorce	Abortion falls under this keyword too, as well as death of a child or baby. The keyword death may mark a milestone in your life. If the scale is below 6 it may indicate a life-threatening emergency, especially if this keyword appears together with the keywords accident or surgery. Unsuccessful suicide attempts are often marked as favorable. In most cases, however, Astrodamus, uses this keyword when it's just about separation or divorce.
Delay	This keyword has a negative meaning. If an event appears with this keyword, it does not refer to the delay of the event itself; rather to the effect of the event that will drag on. Even a favorable change will yield success in a delayed manner, despite your efforts. This keyword usually appears in the Daily Analysis periodically for a relatively long time.
Desires	This keyword is about your dreams and hopes and may also indicate friendships.

Divorce (separation or possibility of separation)	Here, Astrodamus does not weigh the events and the reason of divorce or separation is not determined. A most typical reason may be quarrels or irreconcilable differences. On the other hand, Astrodamus also uses this keyword when the reason is a physical distance, long working hours, imprisonment or hospitalization. It may denote a (short) trip. Also check whom the blocks refer to: your partner, parents, child, authority etc. because the event may occur in relation with them.
Domestic travel	With an unfavorable indication, pay attention that you don't violate traffic laws.
Education	This keyword refers to education received at any point in your life as well as any work done in the fields of education (it's NOT about your knowledge). Typically this keyword is about preschool, grade school, college, all kinds of schools (language schools etc...), music school, ballet, sports etc. In the Daily Analysis you can find the results under the negotiations heading.
Elderly person	This keyword indicates persons with a significant difference in age (much younger or older).
End of work	Expect loss of job (partially or completely), especially when this keyword can be found in the Annual Analysis. If this keyword does not appear under the Daily Analysis, it may indicate work-related changes, not necessarily a job-loss.
Entertainment	This keyword includes drinking, short romantic encounters, horse racing, sports, hobbies etc.
Female/male	This keyword indicates whether a person is male or female, however, the reliability is only about 67%..., so don't rely too much on the indicated gender.
Finances	This keyword refers to your financial situation. It also refers to your personal property or possessions as well as financial speculations or transactions (investments, brokerage transactions), excluding gambling.
Financial decline, unexpected expenses	This keyword indicates a decline relative to what was previously indicated in a given period. It also indicates difficulties related to real estate or personal possessions.
Foreign countries	This keyword also includes foreign/international trade and affairs. This keyword is not always accurate though!
Friend(s)	This keyword includes adopted children, stepchildren or the child of another person. It's NOT about your lover!
Gynecology problem	This keyword includes abortion, irregular menses, bladder infection and other gynaecological problems. It also indicates sexually transmitted diseases or sexual perversions.

Health	See illness
Hesitation	This keyword most often refers to a platonic love relationship.
Illness	This keyword indicates any illness that goes beyond the common cold. Intoxication may also appear as illness. Scale 3 or below points to minor illnesses and may also indicate working with the sick. So, people working in the healing fields may encounter this keyword more often. It's best to examine all blocks within the same time span to determine who is going to be sick. If the word illness is listed aside from the word child or parent , it may indicate who becomes sick.
Important life events	This keyword includes all major and important life events which may become your personal milestones (the beginning of a serious relationship, change of vocation, marriage, childbirth, moving abroad,...). It's very similar to the keyword Self . The difference with the keyword 'Self' is that the keyword 'important life events' refers to people other than yourself.
Improvement in life styles	This keyword may indicate any promotion in a social, political, religious, scientific or philosophical sense. It also indicates work-related promotions as well as sports-awards, public awards etc. See profession/success and public appearance .
Improvement of finances	This keyword indicates an improvement of your financial situation or your possessions.
Influential	This keyword includes high ranking, authoritative persons or people whom we respect.
Isolation	This keyword is about the staff of hospitals and institutions (the army, convents, correction facilities etc.) but also includes loneliness or seclusion (voluntarily or due to illness) as well. Interestingly it's also about big animals.
Joy	You will always find 'child', 'parent' or 'sibling' following this keyword. It almost always indicates positive and important events: childbirth (not necessarily your own child), promotions, reaching a goal, beginning of an important relationship, moving and everything that makes YOU really happy.
Law	Civil suits, employment disputes or criminal cases are indicated by this keyword. On occasion higher educational examination is included in this keyword.

Love	This keyword indicates the person you are in love with without taking into consideration the gender of the person. Childhood love rather appears under the keywords joy , desires or friends . The event begins with the words “ begin of ”, the end is indicated by the words “ end of .”
Beginning of love / end of love	Astrodamus cannot indicate whether the end is permanent or temporary or whether you restart an old relationship.
Luck	Lucky events are indicated. In case it is listed as unfavorable the end is still positive.
Marriage/relationship	See partner/spouse
Move	See real-estate
Obligations	This keyword is also about work-related obligations but includes non-work related obligations as well (visiting someone,...)
Over reach/ in the extreme	This keyword includes all extremes (extreme highs and depths) and is most often found in the Daily Analysis.
Parents	This keyword is not only about your parents, but includes your grandparents, stepparents etc. as well. See relatives.
Partner, external environment	This keyword includes business partners as well as legal matters. Also see Publicity.
Partner/spouse	This keyword indicates your domestic partner. It may indicate the wedding or the beginning of any serious relationship. If it appears with the keywords divorce/separation it may indicate the end of your relationship.
Pleasantness	This keyword includes daily pleasant situations and is the same as joy .
Possible hospitalization	The word ‘Possible’ is the key. If the scale is 6 or above, chances are there will be a hospitalization.
Principal	This keyword includes your employer, any superior person in your life, a manager or boss but also co-workers and authority.
Poor performance	Any performance (school examination, negative evaluation by your boss, etc.) is indicated. Check the heading ‘hindrances’ in the Daily Analysis. If you find a similar keyword (for example education), chances are you will not pass your exams.
Problems	You will always find a person or subject following this keyword. As always, look for further details in the blocks.

Public assault affecting life style	This keyword also includes the end of your job, unemployment, completing school (graduation) or a break in education.
Publicity	This keyword includes your public life. Besides the news media it includes any memberships in social clubs, political party, organizations etc. Any social, political, religious, artistic or scientific changes or changes in lifestyle will appear here. Sometimes legal affairs also appear under this keyword.
Real estate	Most often this keyword refers to real estate transactions but also to relocating or moving and even (short) trips
Recognition	This keyword indicates the realization of something (whatever it may be).
Relative	This keyword is about close or distant relatives (siblings, grandparents, step parents, uncles and aunts, in-laws, etc.). Children and your partner are NOT included here.
Reproduction	Repeated events are indicated by this keyword as well as improvements in lifestyle.
Secrets	This keyword has a broad meaning and includes secret science (astrology) and also secret love affairs.
Secret love	With a favorable (begin of) indication the beginning of a secret love is indicated, a unfavorable, end of indication points to the end.
Self	This is similar to the keyword “Important Life Event” but emphasises your own self.
Sex	All sorts of sex appear under this keyword. First time intercourse often can be found under childhood gynecology or gynecology
Specialty	This keyword indicates unusual, extraordinary events such as divorce, intoxication and events related to modern technology (motor vehicles, computers, etc.).
Successful examination	This keyword refers to school examinations and other (work-related) evaluations as well.
Surgery	This keyword almost always seems to involve blood. Dental procedures (extractions) are indicated as well. If the scale is 6 or below no hospitalization is necessary. Hospitalization will occur if the scale is above 6. In some rare cases, this keyword also indicates accidents or death.
Trade	See contracts .
Transportation	This keyword refers to any type of transportation along with walking.

Travel	This keyword is about domestic and foreign travel.
Unpleasantness	Mostly insignificant negative events are indicated by this keyword (e.g. intoxication).
Vocation/success	This keyword does not only indicate change of jobs but also change from one area of work to another. Success does not necessarily mean monetary success; it may be a successful examination or a visit of higher ups or awards of any kind. Changes of social, political, religious, scientific nature can also be found under publicity.
Unfavorable change	These changes are planned but unexecuted or unfulfilled or it may denote past events with unsatisfactory results.
Favorable change	This keyword points to a positive ending.
Important change	The outcome is significant (not necessarily positive or negative). For example: death.
change	In most cases this keyword indicates significant events such as minor illnesses or educational events. Examine whether there is a unfavorable or favorable indication.
Events determining long term tendencies	This keyword indicates events that will likely last for several years.
Positive final results	The outcome will be positive. There may be some connection with superiors, authority, father or husband..
Repeatedly	The events will occur multiple times and are often related to women, health, real estate or children.
Tension	Tension will prevail, even if there is a favorable indication. Most often you receive some information and the events are mostly related to siblings, travel, education or commerce.
Dynamics	When appearing with ‘dynamics’ the events happen energetically, vehemently. If there is an indication of accident, love, authority or law within the blocks, be cautious within the given time span. Events are connected with authority or illness.
Good luck	These events are lucky, even if they start unlucky. Often they are connected with law, travel or advanced studies.
Obstacles	There are delays, even when it’s about favorable events. Events are often connected with elderly people or related to your profession.

Unexpectedly	Sometimes it's not only about the unexpected but the unusual and extraordinary too.
Irregularity	Expect obscure, foggy, uncertain, irregular and even unethical events. Addictions may play part. Also expect delays, even with a favorable indication.
Extremes	This keyword points to extremes, very very great differences.
