

COMPATIBILITY REPORT (Highlights)

Between

Nikky

May 24, 1960

08:20 am

(place withheld for privacy reasons)

and

Bob

January 28, 1964

04:04 am

(place withheld for privacy reasons)

Introductory Astrological Principles (theory in general)

A horoscope is a snapshot taken on the exact date and time of birth in which all planetary positions are projected on a circle (360°, as a 2-dimensional copy of a sphere). This circle is divided into 12 parts. Each part is called a house. Every house concurs, harmonizes with a certain sign of the zodiac and every sign has a ruler (= the planet which dominates, reigns or rules that sign, the planet that always belongs to this sign). Very generally speaking the significations of the houses, signs and rulers are more or less interchangeable. The following delineations are not limitative.

House I Aries (♈) Ruler I Mars (MA, ♂)	The self-asserting ME , the instinctive character, the deed/action, aggression, the sparkle, the impulse, (asserting) primary needs, the disposition of the body, the personal disposition and abilities.
House II Taurus (♉) Ruler II Venus (VE, ♀)	The concrete (tangible) ME , the own (physical) body, substance, material goods (money, small material objects,...), raw materials, all that is consolidated, all that is tangible, the self-worth.
House III Gemini (♊) Ruler III Mercury (ME, ☿)	The visible ME , rational thinking, mobility, small trips, assimilation of information, communication and documents, the neighbours, brothers and sisters (siblings), the nerves.
House IV Cancer (♋) Ruler IV Moon (MO, ☾)	Emotional impulses , all that can touch, move and affect us, the source, the radix, our origin, the parent of the same sex, the family, the home, immaterial goods, the end of things, the potential of creativity.
House V Leo (♌) Ruler V Sun (SU, ☉)	All fixed emotions , emotions that are consolidated, creativity (hobbies), the willpower, your behaviour, play and sports, pleasure, children, love, the centre, pride, the heart, vitality & energy.
House VI Virgo (♍) Ruler VI Mercury (ME, ☿)	Creative experiences with others , work and colleagues, the working environment and working circumstances, subordinates, servitude, adaptability towards the environment, illness, small (domestic) animals, selection and discrimination, criticism and analysis.
House VII Libra (♎) Ruler VII Venus (VE, ♀)	All that one can encounter and meet , the 'other(s)', meetings, relations, social gatherings and the social life, the partner on him/herself, cooperation, contracts, (open or public) enemies, the mental equilibrium.
House VIII Scorpio (♏) Ruler VIII Pluto (PL, ♇)	All that one has encountered or met in "the past" and that one has consolidated , the marriage, mutations and transformations, death, the other's money or goods, principles and ideology, sex, power and compulsions, destruction.
House IX Sagittarius (♐) Ruler IX Jupiter (JU, ♃)	All that one has consolidated and that gets visible and noticed , publicity, the social environment, beliefs, religion, expansions, all that is (far) away from the own environment/domicile, travel.

House X Capricorn (♄) Ruler X Saturn (SA, ♄)	The norm in society , the border, the limit, boundaries, obstructions, hindrance and delays, plumb, life's purpose, the parent of the opposite gender, forms and all that is formal, respect, honour and esteem.
House XI Aquarius (♒) Ruler XI Uranus (UR, ♅)	All that gets concrete in society , standing out, striking, the opposition, electricity, disruption, the shock, being fickle, non-emotional and humanitarian friendships, future prospects and goals.
House XII Pisces (♓) Ruler XII Neptune (NE, ♆)	All that becomes (in)visible in society , freedom, the immaterial, the not, nothing, the sea, sorrows, tears, isolation, abstinence, places of confinement, most words starting with 'dis-...or de-' (disappearance, discharge,...), secret enemies, dreams.

The notion aspect (or 'aspects') signifies the distance (in degrees) between 2 points or planets in a horoscope. Not all degrees are equally important. The most used aspects are:

0°	♌	conjunction (= union of points/planets)
30°	♍	semisextile
45°	♎	Semisquare
60°	*	Sextile
90°	□	Square
120°	△	Trine
135°	▢	Sesquiquadrate
150°	⋈	Quincunx
180°	♌	Opposition (2 points or planets just opposite one another)

The aspects have not to be exact to the minute. A certain difference or deviation from the exact angle (that we call an orb) is allowed, according to the power of the aspect and the planets involved. We use a maximum orb of 6° for the major aspects.

A midpoint is an imaginary point that stands in the middle of two planets. Whenever this (imaginary) midpoint forms an aspect (see above), we get a planetary combination in which the significance of all involved planets can be mixed together. Different planetary combinations make a planetary picture. If, for instance, we write ME = NE/AS, we read this as follows: Mercury (ME) stands in the middle of Neptune (NE) and the Ascendant (AS); In other words, Mercury forms an aspect (of 45°, 0°,...) on this midpoint. The significance of these planetary combinations or pictures are written down in different books, like Ebertin 's "Combination of Stellar Influences" (in short COSI) and Witte 's "Rules for planetary pictures."

Please mind ☞: the following report is based on the dates of birth as given by you. Inaccurate or incorrect birth-times can result in errors in the report. The report can only be correct in so far as the birth-time is correct. Small inaccuracies of the birth-time may result in minor deviations in interpretation or delineation, giving a change of weight in the delineations.

I. Basic Chart Comparison (synastry) between Nikky and Bob

The relationship between someone born on May 24 and someone born on January 28 is quite a romantic affair. You both share excitement and get well on on the mental plane. Also, this relationship is not that stable and may be unsettled as you both need lots of freedom. It's not really suited for a marriage but may be very promising in a lasting friendship.

You both are born on Tuesday (the day belonging to the planet Mars). It's always a favorable indication when both partners are born on a "compatible" or even on the same day. A day associated with Mars denotes that you both are quite impulsive (in a restless way that is) and that the relationship is a sensitive one. You need action and doing things. The downside of being born on a "Mars-day" is too much self-centeredness. Mars is not about endurance but about short lived and passionate events.

Regarding overall compatibility between two people, the elemental division in the horoscopes is most important:

	Nikky	Bob
Fire	2	4
Water	5	4
Earth	6	3
Air	2	4

The table above shows that you both are well balanced. You have a predominant earth element, while in Bob's natal chart, earth is less dominant. Overall, there is nothing that really stands out (no lacks and no predominant factors) so that this neutral score is quite favorable.

When taking a look at the 30° comparison table and dial, I notice the following planetary configurations. Let's take a look:

1. your Moon is on Bob's Saturn: there is realism but any combination with Saturn is a burden in the long run
2. your Mercury is on Bob's Mars: disputes, much talking and communicating and playing games with each other but also differences
3. your Saturn and Uranus are on his Neptune: this configuration may point to illness or quite some sorrow. In the worst condition there is hate, in the best case there is a painful separation
4. your Neptune is on his Sun: this combo too may point to illness but also denotes deceptions and some chaotic situations.

Your Sun is in Bob's 6th house while his Sun is in your 7th house conjunct your 8th house. According to some statistical research done in the Netherlands on married couples, it's not favourable to have the Sun of the partner in the 6th house of servitude. This overlay denotes that both partners are very work-oriented. This overlay carries the potential of the eroding of self-esteem.

Your Moon in Bob's 5th house, conjunct the 6th is in a rather neutral position. His Moon in your first house is rather unfortunate. Statistical research has shown that the Moon in the 1st house of the partner may point to divorce.

Both your Mercury, planet of communication, is in each other's 6th house denoting that you can be critical towards each other. As such this position is neutral.

Your planet of love, Venus, falls in his 5th house of love, children and creative self-expression but is conjunct his 6th house. His Venus is in your 9th house which is less fortunate. Venus in the mutable 9th house of the partner seems to bring separation within 7 years. Venus conjunct the 6th house may upset the balance in the relationship because this is not a relationship of equals. One partner has to do more than the other. However, this can be a very helpful position too, especially when one of the partners is ill because the other partner will sacrifice him/her for the other.

Your instinctive and impulsive Mars is in Bob's 4th house while Bob's Mars is in your 8th. This combo is a neutral one, increasing the (sexual and physical) attraction.

Your Jupiter in Bob's 1st house is not a good omen (contrary to what you may find in many and many astrological text books). From statistical research, Jupiter in the 1st house of the partner brings divorce in the long run... Indeed, it seems to be one of the surest indications of divorce after marriage! His Jupiter in your 10th house is just a neutral position, promoting your career and your esteem.

Your Saturn in Bob's 1th house, conjunct his 2nd house of income and possessions is pointing to some restrictions on the material plane. Bob's restrictive and cold Saturn is in your 8th house. Saturn in the 8th house of shared resources is one of the worst positions and often indicates divorce with much trouble, related to shared resources. This overlay may bring some disturbing discomfort. Also, there may be self-punishment noticeable (and on a sexual level SM). This overlay can trigger self-destructive behaviour!

Your Uranus is in Bob's 8th house of shared resources and sex. It is another very strong indication of a possible divorce after marriage. His Uranus in your 3rd house is in a neutral position.

Your Neptune in Bob's 11th house of friends and social organizations is just another no-no. Neptune seems to bring more despair instead of hope and aspirations. Bob's Neptune in your 5th house is in a neutral position.

Your Pluto in his 9th house denotes that your world views tend to differ. His Pluto in your 3rd house denotes that he can be rather forceful at times.

Also notice that Bob's Ascendant conjuncts your 6th house cusp which might be an indication of a work-related relationship (working for a common goal). As such this is not an indication of a real love relationship.

The basic chart comparison brings the following planetary aspects to the foreground (bold text and planets point to dominant aspects; bold aspects point to close aspects while normal text lists aspects with wider orbs, aspects in italics point to important double whammies):

Nikky		Bob
Neptune	Square	Sun	This is a romantic combination that can be quite misleading though. Both partners do not resonate at the same level.
Mercury Mars	Trine Square	Mars Mercury	There is quite some communication going on between each other. It can be fun communicating but it may happen that there is some irritation too because both partners do not always communicate in the same way

Moon	Square	Saturn	Unconsciously, Bob tries to dominate and restrict you. You may feel fenced in or feel emotionally blocked by Bob.
Mercury	Inconjunct	Mercury	This combination denotes that you both do not communicate at the same level. Misconceptions will occur. It might be very difficult to really understand each other. You both are not communicating at the same frequency.

The midpoint chart comparison brings the following to the foreground:

Nikky	Bob
ME =	MC/SA	To study, to separate, to feel sad
VE =	MA/UR	Sudden love, love at first sight
NE =	MC/VE = MC/PL	Jealousy, love's sorrow, unrequited love, impossible love, deceptions in love
PL =	VE/SA = SA/PL	Separation, not developing love relationship
KN =	MO/MA	To cooperate or work together
MO/NE =	MC	Sensitive feelings

I also analyzed your charts using some Chinese astrological principles.

You are a metal rat, while Bob is a water rabbit. These signs blend fairly well but are not all too fascinated by each other. This combination may work as you both tend to love home life and are realistic.

I also analyzed your charts with the help of some Character Matching methods. Commitment is an important factor in relationships and is an indication of the longevity of it. Endurability is represented by the harmonious Saturn interaspects. Unfortunately you do not share any harmonious aspect with each other, there are only two frustrating squares coming from Bob's natal chart to your Moon and Venus. According to statistical research, long-lasting love relationships need at least 4 harmonious Saturn contacts which is not the case here. This is a real red flag and does not point to a long lasting love relationship but rather to a bond of friendship.

The polarization between both of you is indicated by the opposite aspects. Too much polarization splits the relationship, especially when the opposites happen between cardinal or fixed signs. There is NO degree of polarization noticeable in your chart comparison though which is a good sign. You both tolerate each other fairly well. It's an indication of friendship.

The amount of frustration in the relationship can be deduced from the semi-squares and sesquiquadrates you both share. According to statistical research 8 of these interaspects is, on average, the maximum that people can tolerate before they break up. In your chart comparison you don't reach this level denoting that you get well on together and tolerate each other.

The basic being of the relationship is indicated by the Sun-Moon aspects. Unfortunately, you share no Sun-Moon combos so that there is NO primary and basic structure to keep this relationship going as a love relationship.

Now, let's take a look at the configurations that both horoscopes make:

- there is a YOD between Bob's Uranus (the apex planet) and his Sun and your Mars: This configuration points to impulses and rash behavior. There

II. Davison chart between Nikky and Bob

A Davison chart is a horoscope derived from both your horoscopes together showing the relationship as such, as a unity, and showing the Life Force of the relationship. This chart actually consists of the near midpoints of the same planets and points in both natal charts and represents the couple as a (new) whole. The aspects to the Sun are most important because the Sun is the life force of the relationship.

The Sun is posited in the 1st house, intercepted in Aries. The Sun sextiles Saturn, bringing stability to the relationship. However, the Sun is intercepted and may denote quite some "frustration" denoting that this relationship may feel fenced in sooner or later (Saturn can become restricting). Also, Venus is intercepted in Aries as well. This may be a secret relationship, the more so because the sign Pisces is on the Ascendant and its ruler (Neptune) retrograde in the secret 8th house in secret Scorpio. Add to this the stellium in the 12th house of secrets and this relationship shares quite some secrets.

The most important configuration in this chart is a YOD in which retrograde Pluto is the apex planet. Pluto is inconjunct the Sun and Saturn. This configuration denotes hardship and quite some restricting influences. Actually, this configuration confirms and re-enforces the intercepted and fenced-in position of the Sun. Also, there may be illness too. One or both partners is/are not (feeling) free.

Take care and all the best in love!

Luc De Jaeger

Astrological compatibility advice for all relationships by Cosmic Technologies

Your charts are on the next page

Chart comparison (synastry)

(charts withheld for privacy reasons)